Chinook Learning Services Continuing Education (Calgary Board of Education)

We will be hosting three introductory level classes at Kensington Wine Market for Chinook Learning Services. Here's a synopsis of what we will be covering: Selecting a wine can be intimidating, whether you are ordering in a restaurant or for your personal consumption. These intense, well-structured 2-hour tastings will help you make the right choices by giving you the wine savvy you need. You will visit Old World (France or Italy) or New World (Australia, Canada and US) regions to learn the differences between grape varieties, how wine is made, how different growing regions influence a wine's taste, understanding wine labels and food pairings. This course will also show you that it's not always about price! You will sample a range of red, white and sparkling wines. This course is all about tasting and ordering wine with confidence. Hors d'oeuvres provided.

Mon Oct 5, Mon Oct 19 Mon Oct 26 6:45 to 9:00pm

Recently Arrived

Melton Nine Popes 2005 Australia Move over Chateaufeuf du Pape. This Barossa favorite (Grenache, Shiraz and Mourvedre) offers seductive, juicy, smoky, meaty flavors with red berry brightness. $40.49

Moss Wood Cabernet 2005 Australia Rich, dark, intense and mouth-filling, with great density and intensity of tannic structure. A remarkable wine. $74.99

Piombo Diavolo Shiraz 2005 Australia "This could be the Australian equivalent of a great old-style Bordeaux. All the ingredients for potential greatness are here". Wine Advocate - 92 points. $49.99

Joie Farm Un-oaked Chardonnay 2008 Canada A limited release and oh so good! Honey gold in the glass and bursting with fresh apple skin aromas which lead to flavors full of apples, honey and minerals. $33.49

Clos des Nines l'Oree 2007 France Rich, powerful and seductive blend of Grenache, Cinsault and Syrah. Layers of blackberry, cream, dark plum and spice flavors. Only 1100 cases produced. 93 points Wine Spectator. $30.99

Coume Del Mas Quadratur 2006 France Undoubtedly one of our least known yet best treasures. Hugely smoky and viscous with sweet, very dark fruit and an ostentatious structure. 50% Grenache, 30% Mourvedre and 20% Carignan. $54.99

Moulinier St Chinian Terrasses 2004 France This award-winning red is not to be missed by Syrah lovers. Richly scented with aromas of ripe berries and underlying spice. First class honors at the London Wine Fair. $44.99

Poggio al Sole Chianti Classico 2007 Italy Ripe and rich fruit gives this charming red lush notes of sweet cherries and leather. We think this vintage far superior to the 2006. Enjoy with herb crusted roast chicken. $29.99

Tenuta del Portale Le Vigne a Capanno 2007 Italy Basilicata is located on the instep of Italy's 'boot'. Aglianico, a noble black grape, can be traced back to the Greeks. This is a complex red with aromas and flavors of wild herb, smoke and dark berries. $38.99

Bodegas Alinde Reflejo Rosso 2007 Spain We're very proud of this new arrival. A full and persistent Tempranillo from the Toro region. Lots of red fruit flavors with a hint of oak. Fruity on the nose with coconut tones and liquorice. $25.99

Canals Nadal Cava Brut Spain In a blind tasting you just might think this is Champagne. Lovely bouquet of apple, pear and peach. Dry, soft and elegant to sip. $28.99

Mas Franch Negro 2005 Spain Montsant is the sun-baked neighbor to Priorat near Barcelona. Negro is a blend of Cabernet, Gamacha, Syrah, Merlot, and Carinena. Aromas of cedar, smoke and violets. A big, ripe, spicy red. $33.99

DuMol Russian River Chardonnay 2007 California One of the best Chardonnays they have made under this moniker. Crisp acids, beautiful lemon butter notes intermixed with brioche and orange/nectarine notes are all present in this full-bodied white. $72.99
